

Office of the Orange County Mayor

Proclamation

WHEREAS, public service is among the most noble and demanding of professions; and

WHEREAS, the work of public servants enhances the quality of life of residents throughout Orange County, the state of Florida, our nation, and the world; and

WHEREAS, the American Society for Public Administration (ASPA) Central Florida Chapter embraces professional development and promotes ongoing research and learning to enhance public servants' skills to better meet emerging needs of our society; and

WHEREAS, Public Service Recognition Week is observed annually to recognize the valuable contributions of millions of public servants whose vocations with federal, state, local units of government, university educators/researchers, and employees of nonprofit organizations make possible our valued way of life, and

WHEREAS, Public Service Recognition Week is a special celebration that honors the contributions, collaborations, and innovations made by America's public employees who are dedicated, professional, and grounded in ethical conduct, and

WHEREAS, Public Service Recognition Week allows us to take stock of how fortunate Central Florida is to have the level, depth, and commitment of public servants, our world class university educational network, and a robust diversified economy that we may take for granted but was established through good political leadership and policy that was carried out through deliberate management and mission-driven public servants

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Richard T. Crotty, by virtue of the authority vested in me as Orange County Mayor, do hereby proclaim the week of May 4 through May 10, 2009 as in Orange County, Florida, and express appreciation not only to Orange County employees, but to all public employees at all levels of government and call on all citizens throughout Orange County to recognize the contributions of Orange County employees and to take pride in their accomplishments.
