A CELEBRATION OF PUBLIC SERVICE

The American Society for Public Administration Coastal Bend Chapter, a professional public service chapter available to public servants in the Coastal Bend, specifically serving Nueces, Kleberg, San Patricio, Aransas and Jim Wells counties, will be hosting a luncheon recognizing public service, with special guest speaker, George K. Noe.

The "Celebration of Public Service" luncheon is scheduled for November 14, 2008, at the Solomon P. Ortiz Center. Tickets for the event are $25.00 per person. Please invite your friends and co-workers to attend.

The event will also include recognition of the current Certified Public Manager class offered by Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi, and the local Pi Alpha Alpha, the National Honor Society for Public Affairs and Administration.

The event is open to the public, and all those involved in the public administration are encouraged to participate. For more information, or to purchase tickets, contact local ASPA President, Reba George, City of Corpus Christi, 361-826-3466 or rebag@cctexas.com

ASPA's mission is to advance the art, science, teaching and practice of public and nonprofit administration through its programs and services, and fosters core public service values including: accountability and performance, professionalism, social equity, and ethics at the local, national and international levels.

ASPA has a diverse membership of approximately 9,500 government and nonprofit administrators, scholars, educators, and students. Membership is open to individuals in government, non-profit or university services.
